INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

The Journal of Nuclear Medicine will consider original articles in the following areas: basic sciences, in vivo function studies, in vitro studies, radiouclide imaging clinical studies, and therapeutic applications of radionuclides. The category in which an article is submitted must be marked at the top of each manuscript. Articles must describe definitive and original studies which are completely documented by both reference to the literature and description of the methods and results used. Articles are accepted for publication on the condition that they are contributed exclusively to this Journal. Authors alone are responsible for the technical accuracy of their manuscripts. All material submitted should follow the style outlined in the Style Manual for Authors available from the Society of Nuclear Medicine for $1.50.

In addition to regular full-length articles, the Journal will consider manuscripts in the following areas:

Preliminary Notes communicating information about "works in progress." The text may not exceed 1,200 words. Authors may submit (a) two illustrations, (b) two tables, or (c) one table and one illustration. An additional 400 words of text may be submitted if both tables or illustrations are required.

Case Reports or brief clinical notes. More than one patient may be described if there are obvious similarities in the phenomena or reactions described. The requirements for length of a Case Report are the same as those of Preliminary Notes.

Concise Communications are short, definitive articles of completed research. They must be brief and describe work that will be published in fuller detail later or be a portion of a study being reported in several short papers. Concise Communications must be submitted without errors and must conform exactly to the instructions for style of manuscripts. If accepted, they will be given more rapid publication than longer articles. Concise Communications must not exceed 1,200 words and must include text, tables, figures, captions, and references. Each figure with its accompanying caption will be counted as one-half of a manuscript page.

Letters to the Editor are comments on material previously published in the Journal or personal opinions of limited but immediate interest in relation to "the state of the art."

In preparing manuscripts for submission, please note the following:

Manuscripts must be typed double spaced on one side of 8 1/2 x 11-in. bond paper with at least 1/2-in. margin on each side. Each paragraph should be indented. The original with three carbons must be provided.

Tables must be typed on separate sheets of bond paper, numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals, and have titles (in caps) centered. Make titles descriptive and provide headings for all columns. Omit vertical lines. Place horizontal lines under title and under column headings.

Illustrations must be submitted in photographic form (glossy prints) or as original India ink drawings. Frehand lettering is not acceptable. Two sets of illustrations must be submitted. Labeling should be clear, set in initial caps and lower case. Poor-quality illustrations will be returned to the author to be redone because good quality is essential for clarity of presentation. Illustrations should be identified by a label pasted on the back (do not write on the back of photographs with pen or pencil) indicating number, author's name, and an abbreviated article title. The top of each illustration must be clearly marked. Descriptive legends with sufficient detail to make illustrations understandable without reference to text should be grouped on a separate sheet double-spaced. Authors will be charged $10 each for every illustration over four.

References must be cited in the text by number (underlined) in parenthesis in order of appearance. A consecutive list according to reference number must be submitted on a separate page double-spaced. Literature references must be cited in the following order: name of author (last name first; then initials), title of article, source, year of publication, volume number, column, first to last page of article. If more than three authors are listed, the "et al." designation will be employed (Example: Doe JF, Smith LM, et al: The Effect of Temperature on Activity). For books, the title of the book will be used as the reference. Example: Barlow H: Structure and Function of the Nervous System. New York, Appleton-Century-Crofts, 1967, p. 123. Books and manuscripts covering the use of nuclear medicine in the diagnosis and therapy of disease and allied fields will be reviewed as space is available. Send copies to the Editor at the address above.
