The Journal of Nuclear Medicine will consider original articles in the following areas: basic sciences, in vivo function studies, in vitro studies, radionuclide imaging clinical studies, and therapeutic applications of radionuclides. The category in which an article is submitted must be marked at the top of each manuscript. Authors are required to provide definitive and original studies which are completely documented by both references to the literature and description of the techniques used. Articles are accepted for publication on the condition that they be contributed exclusively to this journal. Authors alone are responsible for the technical accuracy of their manuscripts. All material submitted must follow the style outlined in the Style Manual for Authors available from the Society of Nuclear Medicine.

In addition to regular full-length articles, the Journal will consider manuscripts in the following areas:

Preliminary Notes communicating information about "works in progress." The text may not exceed 1,200 words. Authors may submit (a) two illustrations, (b) two tables, or (c) one table and one illustration. An additional 400 words of text may be submitted if no illustrations or tables are required.

Case Reports or brief clinical notes. More than one patient may be described if there are obvious similarities in the phenomena or reactions described. The requirements for length of a Case Report are the same as those of Preliminary Notes.

Concise Communications are short, definitive articles of completed research. They must not describe work that will be published in fuller detail later or be a portion of a study being reported in several short papers. Concise Communications must be submitted without errors and must conform exactly to the instructions for manuscripts. If accepted, they will be published more rapidly than longer articles. Concise Communications must not exceed ten double-spaced typewritten pages including text, tables, figures, captions, and references. Each figure with its accompanying caption will be counted as one-half of a manuscript page.

Letters to the Editor are comments on material previously published in the Journal or personal opinions of limited but immediate interest in relation to "the state of the art."

In preparing manuscripts for submission, please note the following:

Manuscripts must be typed double spaced on one side of 8 1/2 X 11 in. bond paper with at least 1-in. margins on each side. Each paragraph should be indented. The original with three copies must be provided.

Tables must be typed on separate sheets of bond paper, numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals, and have titles (in caps) centered. Make tables descriptive and provide headings for all columns. Ommit vertical lines. Place horizontal lines under title and under column headings.

Illustrations must be photographed in glossy prints or as original India ink drawings. Frehand lettering is not acceptable. Two sets of illustrations must be submitted. Labeling should be clear, set in initial caps and lower case. Poor-quality illustrations will be returned to the author to be redone because they impede the clarity of presentation. Illustrations and label pasted on the back (do not write on the back of photographs with pen or pencil) indicating number, author's name, and an abbreviated article title. The top of each illustration must be clearly marked. Descriptive titles with sufficient detail to make illustrations understandable without reference to text should be grouped on a separate sheet double-spaced. Authors will be charged $10 apece for every illustration over four.

References must be cited in the text by number (underlined) in parenthesis in order of appearance. A consecutive list of references numbered with that number must be submitted on a separate page double-spaced. Literature references must be cited in the following order: name of author (last name first, then initials with no punctuation), and (for each article) title of article (initial capital and lower case), name of periodical abbreviated and underlined for italic (check List of Journals Indexed in Index Medicus for abbreviation), volume number, colon, first to last page of article, year. Up to three authors will be listed; one or more authors past the third will be designated as et al. Example: Poe ND, Dotson SE, Swanson LA, et al. Misinterpretation of lung scans in the diagnosis of pulmonary embolism. J Nucl Med 8:343-362, 1967. For books, the order is as follows: author's last name with initial(s); Title of book underlined in caps and lower case. City of publication, publisher, year of publication, page citation, etc. cited in text.
