

material for governmental agencies involved with the control and legislation of radiotherapy equipment acquisition. Section II contains an excellent review of cost estimates for various types of high-energy radiotherapy equipment, including installation, construction, maintenance, and depreciation costs. For reporting to the WHO Radiotherapy Data Bank, forms and codes are provided in an appendix.

Call for Abstracts for Scientific Program

The WFNMB welcomes the submission of abstracts of scientific papers for either oral or poster presentation at the Third World Congress of Nuclear Medicine and Biology, which will convene at the Palais des Congrès in Paris, France, August 29 - September 2, 1982. Original contributions may be submitted on several topics, as follows:

Radiopharmaceuticals

Cyclotron isotopes
Reactor isotopes
Technetium
Generators

Radiimmunoassay

Production, quality control
Applications in neonatology, endocrinology, or oncology
Automation

Clinical Applications

Cardiology
Endocrinology
Nephrology
Pulmonary diseases
Gastroenterology
Neurology
Bone and joint Hematology
Metabolism
Electrolytes
Therapy
Pediatrics

Instrumentation

Detectors
Electronics
Data processing and display
Tomographic techniques

Nuclear and Non-Nuclear Investigations

Ultrasound
Computerized tomography
Nuclear magnetic resonance
Autoradiography and subcellular localization

Radiobiology, Health Physics, Dosimetry

Economics and Management

Abstracts selected for the Scientific Program, whether for oral or poster presentation, will be published in the Congress Proceedings and distributed to all attendees on site.

The official language is English and some facilities for simultaneous translation will be available.

Abstracts must be submitted on the official abstract form, which may be obtained by calling or writing either of the addresses listed below:
