FIRST IMPRESSIONS?

Editor-elect H. William Strauss, MD, is interested in receiving unusual images of traditional scan subjects-or-scans of non-traditional subjects, for a new addition to the Journal entitled "First Impressions," which will be seen in the Journal on a monthly basis beginning in January of 1990. Akin to Dr. Henry Wagner's "Image of the Year," these images need not be related to the submission of manuscripts to the Journal. Rather they should be interesting in and of themselves. Submit your images, along with a completed form (Included below), to:
