

Supplemental Figure 1 – Sagittal views of CT for two patients (A,C) and corresponding MR-based density estimations (B,D). In this case, the available CT information was used to mask out all voxels below +100 HU. The UTE-derived R2 maps were then automatically rescaled to Hounsfield units.